

More than $200,000 in grants goes to local art recipients

Staff report 2:55 p.m. CST November 30, 2014

Acadiana Center for the Arts has awarded grants — funded by several local and state programs — to organizations and artists in support of their mission of fostering art and culture in Acadiana.

The Lafayette Consolidated Government, External Agencies Funding Program for Arts and Culture is designed to support arts and cultural organizations that will significantly enhance the culture life of the community.

The following recipients received funding for the LCG-AC grant for 2014-2015:

- Acting Unlimited Inc.
- Louisiana Folk Roots
- Children's Museum of Acadiana
- Chorale Acadienne
- Vermilionville Living History Museum Foundation
- Lafayette Art Association and Gallery
- Louisiana Crafts Guild
- Cité des Arts

The Decentralized Arts Funding Program is a statewide arts grants program funded by the Louisiana Division of the Arts, to support exhibits, performances, workshops, public art, and more. These grants provide access to professional expertise training in various arts disciplines in all eight parishes of Acadiana. The following organizations received funding from the DAF 2015 grants:

- Crowley Art Association
