HONORING THE LIFE OF JILLIAN JOHNSON

Lost to the world in the tragic Grand Theater shooting in Lafayette in July 2015, Jillian Johnson's creative work was invaluable to our community- she had a way of making everything she did beautiful, unique, and special. Jillian's attention to detail and artistic ability were like no other. Her former bandmates from The Figs come together with friends and her family to honor her in this special evening of music and art to remember what a gift she truly was to all of us.
