OCTOBER 3, 2025
AllStars Series, p.10

Dear Friends of the Arts,

We are excited to invite you to the Acadiana Center for the Arts' 50th anniversary season!

This year's incredible lineup features performances from legendary artists and rising stars. Below is a preview of some standout shows in each series we're proud to offer in 2025.

In our AllStars Series, we're thrilled to present Lucinda Williams and her band. A true icon of American songwriting, Lucinda's GRAMMY-winning work resonates deeply with audiences through her raw and powerful voice. This performance is especially poignant as she shares her journey of recovery following a major stroke, proving that her artistry remains stronger than ever. Don't miss this opportunity to witness a musical legend in the intimate setting of our James Devin Moncus Theater.

For the Louisiana Crossroads Series, we'll kick off the season with a two-night celebration of the most exciting young voices in Cajun and Creole music today. Featured in the acclaimed 2024 documentary Roots of Fire, musicians like Wilson Savoy, Cedric Watson, and Jourdan Thibodeaux will share their stories and music that have shaped Acadiana's vibrant scene.

In the Spotlight Theatre and Dance Series, we are excited to produce new work like "Send on the Clowns" by Louisiana-based artist Nicole Curtis. This playful and thought-provoking production blends dance, clowning, and comedy to explore the joys and frustrations of everyday life. With laughter as a healing force, Nicole's work promises a truly unique and joyful experience that will invite the audience to let their guards down and embrace shared moments of connection.

Our newest program, the NXT Series, continues to grow and support emerging local talent in a wide variety of genres. We invite you to attend something new and support these incredible artists as they make a significant step in their careers.

We would love to see you at these remarkable performances as we celebrate 50 years of the Acadiana Center for the Arts! See full details and ticket pricing in the pages that follow and look for new announcements throughout the 50th anniversary year.

Warm regards,

Samuel Oliver

Roots of Fire LIVE! in Concert

Kristi Guillory, Kelli Jones, Joel Savoy, Wilson Savoy, Jourdan Thibodeaux, and Cedric Watson are some of the younger voices that have shaped the sound of Acadiana, following the first wave of the Cajun and Creole revival. These incredible artists were featured in the recent documentary Roots of Fire (2022), which tells the story of their own journeys in music in Acadiana over the past several decades. This group reunites for TWO special nights kicking off the 50th anniversary year of the Acadiana Center for the Arts to tell stories of their own aspirations for where the music scene can go in the next half-century.

Cajun | Zydeco | AcA's 50th Anniversary Celebration

Tickets: $40, $60, $70

Steve Conn: A Life of Words & Music

ft. Sonny Landreth

FEB 13

No Depression wrote that “Steve Conn may be the best singer you’ve never heard.” For the past half century, Steve has been the benchmark for honest and soulful music. He is poignant, humorous, and even heartbreaking at times — and we all get to listen as he bares his truth and invites us to join him.

Singer-Songwriter | Blues | Americana

Tickets: $40, $60, $70

Louis Michot: Rêve du Troubadour

MAY 15

“Rêve du Troubadour” — “The Troubadour’s Dream” — refers to the manner in which Michot pulls his music from dreams into daylight, then fills it with storytelling. Though Michot has published over 100 songs, he feels that Rêve du Troubadour is his first cohesive collection of writing as these songs tell their stories with poetic depth and utilize words peculiar to Louisiana French.

Cajun | Roots | Zydeco

Tickets: $40, $60, $70

One Hundred Years of Clifton Chenier

ft. C.J. Chenier

SEP 18

AcA celebrates the 100th birthday of legendary “King of Zydeco” Clifton Chenier with a cast of special guests, friends, and collaborators. Chenier’s musical legacy is carried on by his son, C.J. Chenier, who took over leadership of the Red Hot Louisiana Band and continues to tour the globe as an ambassador of the genre.

Paul Simon’s “Graceland”

with Scott Mulvahill

NOV 20

A live performance of Paul Simon’s iconic “Graceland” album by Nashville-based bassist and band leader Scott Mulvahill. Nostalgic and exhilarating, this concert explores the album’s ties to the region and brings together a fusion of seasoned artists and contemporary musicians to celebrate the groundbreaking work that blends folk, rock, and African musical influences, reflecting themes of loss, redemption, and cultural connection.

Folk-Rock | Classic Rock | World

Tickets: $45, $65, $75

George Porter Jr.

DEC 12

Grammy Lifetime Achievement Award recipient George Porter Jr. was a founding member of the The Meters in 1965. Known as one of the progenitors of funk, The Meters carved their own place in history with syncopated polyrhythms and grooves inherited from New Orleans’ deep African musical roots. Born and raised in the Crescent City, Porter calls New Orleans home to this day.

An Evening with Lucinda Williams & Her Band

Lucinda Williams’ music has gotten her through her darkest days; it’s been the force driving her recovery from a debilitating stroke she suffered on November 17, 2020, at age 67. Her masterful, multi-GRAMMY-winning songwriting has never deserted her. And though Williams can no longer play her beloved guitar – a constant companion since age 12 – her distinctive vocals sound better than ever.

Americana | Rock | Alt-Country

Tickets: $70, $95, $120

Black Joe Lewis & the Honeybears

APR
4

Black Joe Lewis is an American blues, funk and soul artist influenced by Howlin’ Wolf and James Brown. He formed Black Joe Lewis & The Honeybears in Austin, Texas, in 2007. In March 2009, Esquire listed Black Joe Lewis and the Honeybears as one of the “Ten Bands Set to Break Out at 2009’s SXSW Festival.”

Blues | Funk | Soul

Tickets: $45, $65, $75

Ghost-Note

MAY

Ghost-Note is an explosion of sound. Headed by Snarky Puppy’s multi-GRAMMY Award-winning percussion duo of Robert “Sput” Searight and Nate Werth, featuring an expansive roster of musicians — representing members of Prince, Snoop Dogg, Kendrick Lamar, Marcus Miller, Toto, & more—the band is pushing funk music into the future.

Funk | Hip-Hop | Jazz Fusion

Tickets: $45, $65, $75

Andrew Duhon

SEP

Andrew Duhon is a songwriter who’s weighted, soulful songs feel like a trustworthy dispatch from the heart of his New Orleans home to the familiar landmarks of Americana Music. No Depression call’s Duhon, “a soulmate of Van Morrison lyrically and vocally.” With four records out so far, his 2013 album, “The Moorings,” was nominated for a GRAMMY Award.

Folk | Singer-Songwriter | Blues

Tickets: $45, $65, $75

Ruthie Foster

OCT
3

Ruthie Foster’s musical journey is as eclectic and vibrant as her soulful voice. Ruthie’s earliest influences were the voices of her mother, grandmother, and the gospel singers she grew up listening to. With five GRAMMY nominations to her name, Ruthie Foster stands as a testament to the power of authenticity and resilience in music.

Soul | Gospel | Blues

Tickets: $45, $65, $75

Kat Higgins

Kat Higgins’ earliest memories include recording cassette tapes to send to her Granny Higgins in Ireland when she was four years old. Now a BMG published songwriter, Kat’s songs include Country hits like “The Painter” (Cody Johnson), “Knowing You” (Kenny Chesney), “Mexico” (Carrie Underwood), and many others. Kat is finally hitting the road with her own music & own voice.

Portrait of Ludmilla as Nina Simone

MAR
20

French-language play “Portrait of Ludmilla as Nina Simone” is a captivating performance halfway between tribute concert and theatrical performance where Senegalese-Cameroonian singer Ludmilla Dabo explores the life and music of legendary jazz icon Nina Simone. Blending powerful vocals, storytelling, and emotion, Ludmilla honors Simone’s legacy in an unforgettable tribute to one of music’s most influential figures.

Orpheus & Euridice

SEP
11&12

In Ricky Ian Gordon’s “Orpheus and Euridice,” the timeless myth is re-imagined through lush melodies and poignant lyrics. Euridice is a soprano, Orpheus a clarinetist, and together they weave together an intimate reflection on love, loss, and the power of music. Featuring soprano Kelly Ann Bixby as Euridice, this innovative performance blurs the traditional lines of theater, opera, and song.

The Sunny Side Jazz Brunch

April 13, 2025

The Sunny Side Jazz Brunch is a benefit for the arts in the Acadiana region at the home of Kip and Carolyn Schumacher. The Sunny Side Jazz Brunch calls to the experiences of legendary Creole Jazz brunches at Commander's Palace and Brennan's.

All funds raised from the Sunny Side Jazz Brunch support the AcA's performing arts programs, offering national acts of music, dance, and theater in Lafayette, as well as the expansion of AcA's Arts in Education work into new schools and parishes around the rural regions of Acadiana.

Gulf Brew

October 18, 2025

Gulf Brew is Acadiana Center for the Arts' longest running festival! Each October, AcA transforms Downtown Lafayette into a beer-centric street festival with more than 200 different types of craft beer, live music, arts & crafts vendors, yard games, a Family Fun zone, & more!

Pelican Ball

December 6, 2025

Pelican Ball recognizes the people who have shaped the arts in Acadiana through their commitment and service. We honor both individuals who have contributed directly to the arts council's work and individuals who have shaped the broader cultural life in Acadiana through their work.

We honor these individuals, and we celebrate our thriving culture in the best way we know how: with a night full of food, music, and artful surprises amidst the core 'flock' of Acadiana's cultural community.

50 YEARS

OF FOSTERING ART & CULTURE IN ACADIANA

This year, the AcA proudly celebrates its 50th anniversary, marking five decades of creativity, inspiration, and community. The AcA has grown from a small arts council into a central pillar for the arts in Louisiana, with a far-reaching impact on our community and our state. As we honor this significant milestone, we look back on countless memories and groundbreaking achievements, including the establishment of key educational programs that have inspired hundreds of thousands of students since our founding.

In celebration of this 50th anniversary, AcA also announces plans for a $5 million endowment campaign in order to create a significant investment in the future of arts and culture in Acadiana.

Through this initiative and many commemorative events, the AcA will continue to nurture artistic expression, support creative endeavors, and build connections that will resonate for generations.

Here's to the next 50 years of art, culture, and community!
